

VISA D TO STUDY IN BELGIUM

1/ Documents

You will find all information, including the overview of the documents to be submitted and the procedure to be followed to apply for a student visa for Belgium via the following link:

<https://dofi.ibz.be/nl/themes/ressortissants-dun-pays-tiers/studies> (Dutch)

<https://dofi.ibz.be/fr/themes/third-country-nationals/etudes> (French)

Note the information is not (yet) available in English as the website is under construction. However, if you need a list of necessary documents in English, please send us an email (kingston@diplobel.fed.be).

Other than the documents requested via the above link, you also need to submit:

- Print of your online application form, filled out correctly and signed
- Recent passport picture
- Your passport. Please note we strongly advise to ensure your passport is still valid for at least 12 months at the time of your application, to avoid all problems.

2/ Fees to be paid

There are normally two amounts to be paid:

1. The visa fee to be paid to our Embassy

You pay for a visa D. You will find the cost and the payment instructions, as well as the exemptions on our website (<https://jamaica.diplomatie.belgium.be/en/consular-costs>).

2. The administrative fee to be paid to the Immigration Office (if you are over 18 years of age)

You will find the instructions via <https://dofi.ibz.be/en/themes/faq/fee>

Proof of these payments needs to be sent in with your visa application,

Remarks:

Always send a copy of every original document you submit, including your passport (picture page and each used page). We do not make copies, and original documents will only be returned if you provide a copy for us.

The Embassy will analyze the submitted documents and has the right to request any additional documents at any point in time, when and where it is deemed necessary.
